Barrington Barber is a renowned author in the field of teaching drawing skills and a practicing artist. He enjoys a successful career as a commercial illustrator and fine artist and has written and illustrated a wide range of best-selling instructive art books. --This text refers to the Paperback edition.

I purchased this at Half Priced Books, for $5.99, with little to no inspection, trusting that the "Fundamentals" in the title really meant that and it would be a good nuts and bolts oil painting book. Not! It should really be titled "How To Use Alkyd Media To Paint Like Barrington Barber." From the book: "I always use oil paints ready-mixed with alkyd medium, which speeds up the rate of drying. . ." (Barber, p. 15). Further: "MEDIUMS The most popular medium is linseed oil. . . I don't use it myself because the paint in the tube has enough oil in it already as far as I'm concerned." (Barber, p. 17). So. . . for all of you who actually want to learn all that business of "fat over lean" and the use of traditional mediums, this book is a TOTAL BUST, despite the misleading title! Meh! Live and learn-- inspect better before buying.
