Synopsis

David works in a cubicle, eats a sandwich every day for lunch, wears penny loafers, and has a work friend name Tina. A work friend who has used words such as "normal" and "nice" to describe him. But all David can conclude based on her description is that he's simply boring. All of that changes when Tina's brother enters David's life, bringing along his lively friend, very little clothing, and a dirty mind. Can David smoothly transition away from a life that constantly revolves around work and into a life of threesomes and shade throwing?
