Customer Reviews

Often when I travel somewhere, I check to see if there are any books covering the hauntings of the area. For less than the price of a ghost tour, you can often concoct your own tour, taken at your own pace. Mr. Fisher's book is a compilation of about 25 or so haunted sites in the towns of the title.

Some entries are little more than a description of the site--always with address and phone number--and 1-2 short paragraphs of information. I think the longest entry is maybe 5 paragraphs. It's fairly rudimentary and does not have the lengthy history or collection of multiple witnesses' stories more typical of these kinds of books. But given that it's digital and quite inexpensive, I'd say it's a solid purchase. You may want a little more detail about some of the places, but if you're planning a ghost hunt--as opposed to a self-guided tour--this would be an excellent jumping off point.
