Customer Reviews

Although older and currently out of print, this book is a gem. As with many informational tracts, the core thesis appears in probably the first third of the book, but it is a very intriguing thesis and presents a very informed analysis methodology within which to examine the world of professional sports.

This book was used for a reference...Author brings up many interesting points concerning the way in which sports writers should produce their articles and how they should not use their own school to influence the articles they write or support on their TV shows. A number of ESPN sports Journalism individuals should read and follow the author's advice....lb
