Customer Reviews

â€œLessons include mindfulness exercises, reflective writing activities, yoga poses, and affirmations, along with several activities that help inspire mental and emotional well-being. . . . it also gets practical, addressing bullying, crushes, and learning how to be a good friend. The coolest thing about this book is that none of the activities involve using social media, leaving readers to truly tap into the creative, undistracted self. Despite the subtitle, this book’s affirming messages can serve diverse genders. • Kirkus Reviews “A ton of fun, full of adventure, wisdom, and power! You’ll want to return to School of Awake again and again, and you’ll always discover something new. Enjoy!” • Rashida Jones, from the foreword

Kidada Jones has worked as a model, fashion designer, stylist, and brand consultant. Kidada found her unique style at a young age, mixing the whimsical and contemporary to create her trademark aesthetic. Through it all, she has remained a spiritual seeker, and this book is the culmination of her journeys, presenting deep wisdom through an inviting, open combination of words and art. Kidada lives in California.
