Book by Schuman, Michael A.

I bought this book for my children since I am an avid Dylan fan and wanted them to know a little more about this great artist. My 10 year old son used it to prepare a report on Dylan for school. I read the book first and really enjoyed it. It's well written and informative. There were no glaring errors that I saw although I know more about Dylan's music than I do about his life. The author did a nice job at writing for the intended audience (children). I would recommend it for older children as well worth their time if they want to learn about a true musical genius.
