Love Lives On Forever (Amish Romance)

Synopsis

After overcoming her first husband's death, family illness, and the difficulty of being a single mother, Jenna Miller finally thinks she has the plain and simple life she has always wanted. But when a tornado rips through town, she's reminded of the fragility of life and decides to embark on a journey to make up for old regrets before it's too late. Customer Reviews

I enjoyed this book so much! Jenna survived many stressful situations from bad weather, to children being at the age to be making life changing decisions, to worry about her aunt, to helping to decide to buy a new horse to pull the buggy. Jenna and Daniel had two horses, one was getting too old and one was too young to pull the buggy. She was worried about her daed who had dementia. She and her children went to visit her dad and her sister, who was caretaker for him. They were glad they decided to visit them. Jenna felt bad because she could not help her sister. Her sister told Jenna she had enough to do taking care of her husband and two children. I recommend this book for all ages. It is a very interesting story. You can never go wrong buying a book written by author Becca Fisher! I have never been disappointed with any of her books. She makes you feel like you are taking part in her stories.

I chose four stars because I save the five for excellent! This was a good book with a lot of twist and turns that come out all right in the end. JMW
