Customer Reviews

This book is a very good look at how your life can be, if you really seek Jesus and are prepared to live outside the spiritual box that most people are in. Michael shares some wonderful stories of meeting angels both in the spiritual realm and also in the flesh. For those of you who have not encountered angels at all, this should be a really exciting read for you. God loves his servants, and he likes to send angels to assist them, and Michael is one of those people who not only has angels assigned to his life and ministry but also gets to see them from time to time. As a person that has encountered angels and written books about the encounters, I find it especially heart warming to see other Christian authors talking about encounters with angels instead of New Age writers, and people that don't confess Jesus as their saviour writing about them. I encourage you all to check out not only this book, but all of the books by Michael. With LoveAuthor, Matthew Robert Payne
