Customer Reviews

Written by a world-renowned ceramist and leading expert in the field, this companion book to Peterson's "The Craft of Art and Clay, 2/e" describes the initial processes of handbuilding, wheel throwing, plaster mold making, decoration, glaze application and firing techniques in a simple, easy-to-follow narrative. Giving collectors and beginning ceramists a sound start to working in clay and keen eye for appreciating clayworks, it offers rich pictorial guidance throughout, inspiring and instructing readers with a bountiful array of color photographs of processes and clayworks. Features 500 brilliant color photographs with explanatory captions that depict a variety of areas of functional and sculptural ceramic art works; spotlight hundreds of famous clay artists; and expose readers to a virtual gallery of ceramic art - from traditional to avant garde. Presents a colorful pictorial timeline of ceramic art history and fascinating discussions on everything from masks to animals, walls, and installations. --This text refers to an out of print or unavailable edition of this title.

All though it was aggravating how long it took to get here, I did get it before the class was over and it is a very good book

very nice resource.....

great book too bad the teacher of the class wasn't interested. Will keep the book!

Daughter really likes this book.

Great book for a beginner. Great illustrations.

Another great book in my current library and good reference when I'm helping others.

Informative , easy to follow instructions and descriptions.

Great book
