I purchased this bag for my son to carry his Bible in. He loves it and says his friends all think it awesome too. It fits his Bible and still has plenty of space for extra papers, pencils, etc. The compass is an added bonus. He has the Nlrv Adventure Bible for early readers which measures 8.75" X 5.75" X 1.75"

The photograph shows a pale olive green. I bought mine at a local store and the color is darker (a rich medium olive). I prefer the darker look. I suspect that the flash may have washed out the picture posted here. I love this cover. It is perfect for my needs. I carry a book light with my bible and there is a front pouch in this cover that it fits in perfectly (the flap at the top of the photo shows the entry to the pouch). The exterior feels like synthetic water resistant canvas - a nice weight. The interior is slick black nylon fabric like luggage liner. Visible black zipper. I feel that the cover is strong and I carry it by the handle. Pen holders on the left and right interiors. I don't know if I will leave the compass attached - right now I find it rather amusing as it kind of captures the way I feel about my bible - first aid/marching orders/survival kit with a compass, for my heart.

The large covers are wonderful...they fit the bible and prayer books my dad uses, along with his Fire Tablet. Plus, there's room for your pens, highlighters, pencils and erasers...I would not recommend the small/medium size though...

I ordered this to cover a KJV Thompson soft cover bible. It is exactly what I was hoping for. As other reviews state, the COMPASS DOES NOT WORK, but I was not looking for a functional compass to carry around with my bible anyway. I may leave it attached as the nonfunctional accessory I believe it was intended to be. The picture is washed out some. The color is a bit darker than the pic, but that just means it won't show wear as easily. I am extremely pleased with the design and the quality. The pockets are perfect for my mini post notes and sticky tabs. The extra pocket at the top will be perfect for bulletins or my non-interleaved catechism book. There is nothing I do not love about this case. I am thrilled with this product. If you have a standard "pew sized" bible, This case will be a bit big. Though you may be able to use the extra room to carry any extras you may want for your studies.

This bible carrying bag is most certainly well made. Its canvas material, plastic zipper, and brushed metal hardware ensure longevity and durability. I purchased this for my Zondervan auth. KJV bible, and its dimensions are: 5.8" x 0.9" x 8.7". It's a bit roomy but for the most part this bag fits well. The bag even had room to contain my NWT bible! The said NWT has the dimensions of 4.8" x 1.4" x 6.8". The compass on my bag worked as it should, bare in mind that the compass must lay flat to freely spin. And that is a nice addition to a great product.

I got this for my adult son. It seems real sturdy and all the pocket spaces are great for pens, small tablet & misc. I bought this along with the Personal size Life Application Study Bible NIV. According to the dimensions of both I thought the case would have had a bit extra room with the Bible in it...it has ALOT of extra room. The case is much too big for that size of Bible but he has plenty of room for booklets or study guides along with his Bible and it's great for toting it all around. I don't know how the fit would be with other size Bibles, but it is a nice and sturdy Bible case.

As a Army veteran and a Christian this is the perfect Bible cover for me. It works exactly is it that was designed to, all the pockets and netting work and seem to be sewn on well same with the zipper. It fits my MacArthur Study Bible a little bit snugly but works all the same. Very good product in my opinion. God bless.

Too big for use as a Scout book cover but is good quality. The pockets are too small to be useful though.
