This series was designed for folks who enjoy writing AND coloring! Now you can doodle and color while you write!

I was misled by the illustration of the book. The book has tiny borders to color - maybe 1/4 inch all around the page. The pages that have flowers or larger pictures to color are distorted, as if enlarged (incorrectly) on a computer. Also, the lines on the pages are wide, like those in a grade school notebook.

I love the color. It is a nice compact journal with plenty of space to write. I like the decorative edges on some of the pages. I just wish the borders were wider for more coloring.

Great Gift idea!

I received this journal as a gift from my mom and it is great. I will be getting more once this one is filled. I've never been one to color but I find myself not being able to stop. It is easy to color this book with any writing utensil that I am using. Nothing fancy, just simple and relaxing.

I purchased these for gifts.
