I have been owned by cats since forever, but never had a Persian cat until a friend recently gave me a cat who did not get along with her dog. The cat is so friendly and contented, that I wanted to make sure she did not have any needs peculiar to her breed. I found this book and read it quickly. Of course, much of what applies to cats in general, also applies specifically to Persian cats, but I may not have realized how important the grooming was if I had not read the book. Kitty is so enjoying her grooming routines. She let me know that she much prefers to be combed with a comb instead of brushed with a brush to smooth out her tangles. Kitty does think that the book would have been nicer with her picture on the cover.

There was a lot more info on breeding and showing than I wanted. I was disappointed in this. Some cute pictures. I would not recommend this as a cat care 101 book. Lots of history of breed was interesting.

Cute book

This book has very helpful tips about Persian cats and is an easy read. The pointer given with regard to breeding I found really helpful.

I think this book is a great Help to anyone thinking of purchasing a Persian. It covers many, many aspects of the Persian breed. And the information is quite valuable. I am a breeder of Persians. I highly recommend this book !

The only reason this book deserved a three-star rating is for the nice photography and the basic information. If you know nothing about Persians, and have never had one, then whatever you learn is a plus and you would probably benefit from this book. However, if you are experienced with Persians, you will probably find little here that you do not already know, or have not already read in other general cat care books. Granted, many cat breeds have some distinct characteristics, such as the tendency of some Persians' eyes to "tear and run," and the extra grooming requirements necessary not only for Persians but for any long-haired cat. It is what you might call "Lesson 101 in Persian Education."

Very informing book. I bought this before I got my Persian to help me with the purchase. Beautiful pics. Told me what to look for in purchasing and about breeding.
