Customer Reviews

Arrived as prescribed. Good product.

Needed more info than the book provided. What was written was interesting, but not quite what I was looking for.

Fast delivery

Looking for information about Poland for an upcoming trip, I found what I thought would be a useful travel guide (as indicated in the title), but I was disappointed with the limited amount of information provided by this "book." It is really a series of two-page synopses about a few cities and a handful of other "places," such as Auschwitz and the Slowinski National Park. In my opinion, it is absurd to devote the same amount of space to Krakow as is devoted to the national park. I confess that I should have been more observant and realized that this booklet, with its mere 42 pages and no real recommendations, is definitely not worth the money.
