A Flight In Time: A Time Travel Novel (The Thief In Time Series Book 2)

Synopsis

Jillian dreams of abandoning her business major and going to culinary school in Europe, but her parents' expectations and a crippling fear of flying threaten to keep her grounded. To address her fear of flight, she travels to 1908 to meet Wilbur Wright. She doesn't plan on meeting handsome Everett, who broke from his privileged life to pursue a love of flying contraptions and who claims they've met before. When she realizes she's falling for him, she's faced with a heartbreaking choice that could destroy her chances of happiness and perhaps unravel history itself.

Customer Reviews

The "finding" a boy friend back in time theme is wearing thin. Dr Khan is a good evil character, but this second book is a bit confusing as to his presence in the past and future. Also, I think it fairly unbelievable that a person with such a major flying phobia would be charmed by a flight with one of the Wright brothers. Talk about up close and personal!

I enjoyed the book very much. Couldn't read it fast enough to know the ending.

Cidney you can't stop here! Book 2 was there best. But now what happens with Khan, the Roman centurion, and Jillian and Edward Great continuation from the first book. What's not to love about time travel and romance?

Interesting take on time travel. Good character build.

story has drawn me in.

good bedtime reading

I love reading time travel books.
