The Witch Of Dakota

Synopsis

The Witch's medicine was bad. She must be killed. But she ran before they could act. She ran across the Dakota prairie until she could run no more. She turned and faced the oncoming warriors. She had no hope, yet she would defy them until the end. Then came the thunder.

Customer Reviews

I am a great fan of the western genre. This one had a bit of a different spin and held my attention. Read in two sessions. Will check into other books by C. j. Petit. Hope they are as original as this one. Good job.

Mr. Petit writes so you think you are there. The adventures, the storyline, and the characters are unforgettable. Plenty of action with love. This is a must read for men and women!

I have read several of C.J. Petit's books. They are all wonderful, especially to us men who are romantics at heart. Lots of action and romance make a great combination. I highly recommend this novel of early days on the plains and prairie. Gayle Whitten

I enjoyed the adventures trip across Dakota territory and although I knew the predictable outcome it none the less was entertaining.

Enjoyed this book very much. Just as I thought it was getting a little trite, a train robbery came to the rescue. Would have liked to have had some indication that Alice and David also had a happy ever after.

I have really enjoyed all of C.J. Petit's books. Most authors seem to tell the same story with different characters but each of the Petit stories are different and therefore more interesting.

I REALLY ENJOYED THIS BOOK - IT HAD TWISTS AND TURNS THAT KEPT ME WONDERING WHAT ELSE WAS GOING TO HAPPEN. IT DID NOT USE A BUNCH OF BAB LANGUAGE WHICH SOME WRITERS FEEL IS NECESSARY. I WILL BE BUYING SOME MORE C.J.PETIT BOOKS.

All the bad guys are killed, wound around an adventure of a blooming romance. A good read for all to enjoy.
