Caterer and chef Susie Siegfried has spent a lifetime cooking for family, friends, clients, and customers. For many years she ran a successful catering business, and also owned and operated Incredible Edibles, a candy store featuring her own gourmet candied popcorn, chocolates, caramel apples, brownies, and more. Now retired, she still answers the ever-present demand for her gourmet popcorn and candy at popcorn and candy festivals. Mother of three, grandmother of one, aunt to the world, Aunt Susie lives outside Dayton, Ohio, with her husband and family. She's the author of Aunt Susie's 10-Minute Bible Recipes and Aunt Susie's Diet Bible Recipes.

This book is great for cooking for a large group of people (10-15). I have used now three or four times and all of the dishes presented have been greatly received. It is such a relief to be able to go to one source for a great recipe for a crowd.

Wonderful cookbook; one of the best!

I have fond memories of going to church potlucks when we lived in northern Maine. This morning I tried the Banana-Oatmeal Muffins and they came out great. I look forward to trying more recipes.

this book is good. I was disappointed. There are no pictures inside. I like to see and get an idea of what I am fixing looks like.
